COOKIE POLICY

COOKIE INFORMATION

In accordance with Law 34/2002, of 11 July, on Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce (LSSI), in relation to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and Council, of 27 April 2016, General Data Protection (GDPR) and Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December. In accordance with the Data Protection and Guarantee of Digital Rights (LOPDGDD), it is mandatory to obtain the express consent of the user of all websites that use dispensable cookies before browsing them.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies and other similar technologies, such as local shared objects, flash cookies or pixels, are tools used by Web servers to store and retrieve information about their visitors, as well as to provide proper functioning of the site.

Through these devices, the Web server can remember some data concerning the user, such as their preferences for viewing the pages of that server, name and password, products that interest them most, etc.

COOKIES AFFECTED BY THE REGULATIONS AND EXCEPTED COOKIES

According to the EU directive, the cookies that require the user's informed consent are analytical cookies, advertising and affiliation cookies, except for those of a technical nature and those necessary for the operation of the website or the provision of services expressly requested by the user.

TYPES OF COOKIES

DEPENDING ON THE PURPOSE

- Technical and functional cookies: these allow users to navigate a website, platform or application and use the different options or services.
- Analytical cookies: these allow the person responsible to monitor and analyse the behaviour of users of the websites to which they are linked. The information collected through this type of cookie is used to measure the activity of the websites, applications or platforms, and to create browsing profiles of the users of these sites, applications and platforms, to introduce improvements based on the analysis of the usage data made by users of the service.
- Advertising cookies: these are those that allow the management, in the most efficient way possible, of the advertising spaces that, where appropriate, the publisher has included on a website, application or platform from which it provides the requested service based on criteria such as the content edited or the frequency in which the ads are displayed.
- Behavioural advertising cookies: collect information on the user's personal preferences and choices (retargeting) to allow the management, in the most efficient way possible, of the advertising spaces that, where appropriate, the publisher has included on a website, application or platform from which it provides the requested service.
- Social cookies: These are set by social media platforms on the Services to allow you to share content with your friends and networks. Social media platforms can track your online activity outside of the Services. This may affect the content and messages you see on other services you visit.
- Affiliate cookies allow us to track visits from other websites that establish an affiliate contract (affiliate companies).
- Security cookies: these store encrypted information to prevent the data stored in them from being vulnerable to malicious attacks by third parties.

DEPENDING ON THE PROPERTY

- First-party cookies: these are those that are sent to the user's terminal equipment from a computer or domain managed by the publisher itself and from which the service requested by the user is provided.
- Third-party cookies: these are those that are sent to the user's terminal equipment from a computer or domain that the publisher does not manage but by another entity that processes the data obtained through cookies.

DEPENDING ON THE RETENTION PERIOD

- Session cookies: These cookies are designed to collect and store data while the user accesses a website.
- Persistent cookies: These are a type of cookie in which the data is still stored on the terminal and can be accessed and processed for a period defined by the person responsible for the cookie, ranging from a few minutes to several years.
